

Dr. Doug Stauffer

About the Author:

Dr. Douglas D. Stauffer was born in Huntsville, Alabama. He was saved at the age of twenty while a member of the Air Force, stationed in Florida. Upon his honorable discharge, he was awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal for meritorious service and returned to his home in Pennsylvania.

After graduating from The Pennsylvania State University with a B.S. degree in Accounting, he began attending Bible college in Alabama. The Lord dealt with him about preaching during his first semester; whereupon, he dedicated himself to preaching in rescue missions, juvenile detention centers, nursing homes, jails, and prisons. In addition, he had a radio broadcast three times a week. He graduated with a B.A. in Bible and was ordained.

While attending Bible college, Dr. Stauffer passed the CPA exam. He then worked as Controller of several organizations. In 1994, he gave up his work as C.F.O. of a multi-million dollar company along with managing his own firm when God began dealing with him about dedicating his time more fully to the ministry. Since that time, he has earned his Th. M. in Theology and Ph. D. in Religion.

Dr. Stauffer currently serves as president of Key of Knowledge Ministries. He has thousands of hours teaching experience, ten years serving in pastoral ministries, and has authored several books. Each of these books, as taught by Dr. Stauffer, has been produced into cable television segments. One of Dr. Stauffer's most recent projects included his participation as consulting editor for Oxford University Press, Inc. Many of his writings have been published in Christian magazines, journals and periodicals.

In 2004, Dr. Stauffer was the featured speaker on national and international radio broadcasts. The radio programs were heard on over 100 stations in the continental U.S., as well as, Russia, Europe, Central and South America, Asia, Australia, and India.

Doug and his wife, Judy, are traveling together with their two children, Justin and Heather, as he preaches and teaches.
